- Lessees must be over 18 years of age or accompanied by an adult.
- A photo ID, driver's license or passport is required for rent.
- The lessee must return the bike and equipment to the same condition in which it was rented. Kasos Tours bike rentals are not covered by any insurance.
- In the case of damage or theft of a bike and other equipment, the lessee undertakes to cover all repair or restoration costs in the name of Kasos Tours.
- The cost of repairing a flat tire is € 5.
- Other than these there no extra charge will be incurred.

The client must exercise utmost caution in using the bicycle. The client must comply with driving laws and road safety rules and to monitor compliance with these of any minor they accompany.

The client must check the bicycle before use. Specifically, the client must verify proper operation of the transmission system, frame and tires, brakes, lights, and generally all parts required for safe use. In the event of bicycle fault, the user must return it to the station and check out another bicycle.

Restrictions on the Use of the Service

- The client is prohibited from loaning, leasing, or granting of the bicycle to any person other than that provided for in these Terms of use.
- The client is authorized to use the bicycle under the conditions herein, as long as they make reasonable use, which primarily excludes: any operation outside of prescribed use; any use that does not comply with the provisions of traffic regulations or road safety rules; any use on terrain or under natural conditions that are harmful to the bicycle; transportation of any load over 10kg for adults' bicycles and 3kg for children's (including in the basket); transportation of any passenger in any manner; any use that could jeopardize the client, or third parties; any disassembly or attempt to disassemble all, or part of the bicycle; and generally any inappropriate use of the bicycle.

Client Liability and Declarations

- The client is solely and entirely responsible for any damage caused by the bicycle or its use made throughout the duration of bicycle rental, including that which exceeds the predetermined duration of use in case of failure to return the bicycle promptly.
- Any delay in bicycle delivery in excess of 24 hours (calculated from the time of checking out the bicycle at the rental station) shall be considered as a case of bicycle disappearance.
- In case of an accident and/or fault, and/or damage and/or any incident involving the bicycle, the client is obliged to state the facts within the indicated deadlines. Nevertheless, the bicycle remains under the client's liability until it is locked at Kasos Tours delivery point.

Kasos Tours Rights

In accordance with the provisions of the Greek Law, Kasos Tours is free of any liability associated with any use of a bicycle made by a client, or damage incurred by the client to themselves, or to third parties involving the use of the bicycle.
